

December 2015

Dear

♪♪♪ Santa Claus is coming to town ♪♪♪ Ho ho ho, that is my favorite carol.

Well, it's that time of year again when I dust off the sleigh, exercise the reindeer, and iron out my red suit. Problem is I burned my drawers when I was ironing them, so Mrs. Claus is busy making me a new pair. Oops! The reindeer are competing in the Reindeer Olympics but will be ready and chomping at the bit for Christmas Eve deliveries.

Going over my list of who is Naughty & Nice and I see you have been very good all year. I know your friends and family really do appreciate how hard you have been working at being good. We'll see if we can rustle up an extra special gift for you this Christmas.

♪♪♪ Santa Claus is coming to town ♪♪♪ Well, I'll be seeing you soon! Would you mind leaving me a cookie or two if you have any extra? I need to keep up my energy during my long flight!

Merry Christmas to you and your family, and remember...

Santa loves you!

Santa Claus